

PHILOSOPHY

Course

A 75-hour Philosophy course for the Foundation Year Program students. The course is designed for non-italian mother tongue students with the goal of presenting a general introduction of philosophical thoughts (lexicon and some philosopher's ideas).

EXPECTED LEARNING OUTCOMES: students learn how to orient themselves in Philosophy, to use a basic philosophical lexicon and learn some of the most important philosophical issues

Content

The course will be in three modules:

- Lexicon introduction and the most important ideas presented by ancient philosophy philosophers (Socrates, Plato and Aristoteles).
- Modern philosophers (Galileo Galilei, René Descartes. Thomas Hobbes and David Hume)
- Contemporary philosophy: Immanuel Kant and Karl Marx.
